Location

The area is known for its breathtaking natural beauty and stunning sea views, which make every moment there a unique experience. One of the main advantages of the area is its proximity to important archaeological sites.

The famous theater of ancient Epidaurus, where festivals and performances are organized every year, is only 40 minutes away and offers a unique opportunity to enjoy ancient Greek art and culture.
Ancient Corinth, with its impressive ruins and museums, is only 30 minutes away and offers easy access to the history and architecture of antiquity

In addition, Mikro Amoni is only 1 hour and 20 minutes from Athens International Airport, making it ideal for those seeking easy access to and from Athens as well as international flights.
The area also has many beaches with crystal clear waters ideal for swimming and water sports, as well as many opportunities for hiking and nature walks.
