Property description

In a historic location of unique archaeological interest, close to the archaeological monuments and museum of ancient Corinth, stands this impressive 213 m^2 detached house!

It was built in 2006 and extends over three levels (basement, mezzanine, 1st floor). It combines modern industrial design with functionality and comfort. Clean lines, materials such as metal and wood as well as large openings allow plenty of light into the interior and offer a breathtaking panoramic view of the sea, Acrocorinth, the Acropolis, the surrounding mountains and the green surroundings.

The property is bright, airy and flooded with light, with an east-west orientation and open spaces on all sides.
It has 3 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, 1 WC, 1 kitchen, 2 living rooms, an internal staircase, a storage room and an outdoor parking space.

The floors are made of a combination of tiles and wood, the window frames are made of aluminum with double glazing, the heating is autonomous with oil, additionally with air conditioning and radiators.

The outdoor area with garden, trees and barbecue creates ideal conditions for relaxing and socializing in the quiet neighbourhood.
