Location

The property is located in the picturesque region of Perachora, just a few kilometers above the popular resort of Loutraki in the northeast of the Peloponnese peninsula. This area is known for its tranquil, natural surroundings and at the same time offers excellent access to infrastructure and urban life.

Loutraki is nationally known for its thermal baths, casino and beautiful beach promenade with numerous cafés, restaurants and shopping facilities. The combination of mountains, sea and culture makes the region a popular place to live and vacation.

Perachora itself is slightly elevated and offers wonderful views of the surrounding mountain panorama and the sea in the distance. The surrounding area is characterized by olive groves, pine forests and a relaxed atmosphere - ideal for nature lovers and those seeking peace and quiet.

The Loutraki-Perachora region offers a perfect balance of tranquillity, nature, cultural diversity and proximity to the city - an ideal location for anyone who wants to combine relaxation, quality of life and good accessibility.

Property description

This exceptional three-storey detached house (basement/high first floor and 1st floor) is located on a rare, flat and privileged plot of 2,500 m² in Loutraki and offers breathtaking panoramic views of the sea, the mountains and the green surroundings. The 136 m² house impresses with its spaciousness and brightness.

It is light, airy and sunny and has an east-west orientation, offering magnificent views from sunrise to sunset. Inside there are three bedrooms, two bathrooms, a comfortable kitchen, two living rooms and functional storage rooms.

Outside you will find spacious verandas for unobstructed views and a well-tended garden with trees and automatic irrigation - ideal for relaxing and enjoying.

The property offers 4 outdoor parking spaces and is located in a quiet area, ideal for a vacation or permanent residence.

Built in 2012, in good condition, with tiled floors and aluminum frames with double glazing, it has an energy efficient fireplace and a variety of modern amenities: autonomous heating with electricity, heating option per floor, central air conditioning with ventilation for constant air quality, solar water heater, thermal insulation and soundproofing for comfort all year round.

In addition, a security door, alarm system, security cameras, electric shutters, fly screens, three-phase electricity and electrical appliances are offered at no extra cost.
