Location

Distance to the town of Kerkyra and the airport 10 km.
Distance to the beach 2 km.

A wonderful area full of contrasts with hidden traditional mountain villages, easy access to the beaches on the east and west coast, the marina of Gouvia - the largest in the Ionian Sea, the town of Corfu and the 18-hole golf course.

With its stunning backdrop of mountains full of olive groves and cypress trees, picturesque coves and bays, views of the majestic mountains and mainland and the clear emerald waters of the Ionian Sea, the northeast coast of Corfu is an area that has something for everyone.

This is an area where the views are constantly changing. Sheltered from the westerly winds by the mountains, the waters are calmer and it is a paradise for boat owners - in fact, one of the highlights of living or staying in the area is being able to cruise from bay to bay on a boat, be it your own or another rented during your time here.

For nature lovers, there are wonderful walks in the area to abandoned inland villages such as Old Perithia and Old Sines, as well as to the protected Antinioti Lagoon, listed on the European Environment Agency website, which is rich in flora and endangered wildlife.

The area is also known by many as 'Kensington-on-Sea' and is renowned for its many elegant and luxurious homes - the Italian Agnelli family, who founded Fiat, and the Rothschilds are just two of the prominent families with property interests in the area.
