Property description

In Mesagros on Aegina, in a quiet and green setting, stands a two-story, detached house with a total floor area of 273.28 m² on a 2,094 m² private lot. An infinity pool (12.5 m x 5.5 m) invites you to relax.

Built in 2003, the house impresses with its high level of comfort and the privacy it offers.

The panoramic view of the mountains and the surrounding natural landscape creates an atmosphere of tranquility and expansiveness.

The villa spans the ground floor and upper floor and features five bedrooms, including two master bedrooms, each with its own bathroom; a total of four bathrooms; two functional kitchens; and two spacious living rooms.

An elegant interior staircase connects the two floors. The rooms are characterized by plenty of natural light, comfort, and an open floor plan.

The double-glazed aluminum windows, tile floors, and complete furnishings including appliances underscore the high-quality and well-maintained impression.

The oil-fired heating system is self-contained, and the house features air conditioning, a solar water heater, a security door, an internet connection, and an energy performance certificate rated Category D.

Outside, the private swimming pool invites you to relax. It is surrounded by a beautiful garden with trees and spacious terraces that encircle the property and offer unobstructed views of the countryside.

A special feature of the property is the 33 olive trees, which lend the estate an authentic Mediterranean flair and, depending on the annual harvest, yield approximately 40–60 liters of extra virgin olive oil.

A barbecue area, storage room, privacy screening, and two outdoor parking spaces round out the comfortable and upscale living environment. The quiet neighborhood is ideal for anyone who values privacy, and pets are welcome.
