Property description

In a prime and quiet location near the Agios Ioannis Monastery in Loutraki-Perachora, a detached house with 240 m² of living space is for sale.

It is situated on an impressive 5,287 m² lot and offers exceptional privacy, an open, airy feel, and a unique, unobstructed panoramic view of the Gulf of Corinth.

The property combines the comfort of a spacious home with the tranquility and natural beauty of an exceptionally large private lot.

The house spans three floors.

The main house comprises the ground floor and first floor and features three bedrooms, a bathroom, a separate toilet, a kitchen, and a living room.

The basement is connected to the main house and can also be used as a separate living unit ideal for guests or as a second, independent living space. The property covers 5,287 m².

A major advantage of the property is its comfortable outdoor areas, the garden, the trees, and the high level of privacy.

The property features approximately 60 productive olive trees, which lend the property additional natural charm and income potential.

The house features an independent propane heating system, a solar water heating system, radiators, double-glazed aluminum windows, electric roller shutters, fly screens, a security door, appliances, a storage room, a barbecue, rainwater tanks, and several parking spaces.
