Location

Nea Potidea, on the Kassandra Peninsula (Chalkidiki)

Distance to the sea: 150 meters

Property description

In a prime, elevated location in Nea Potidea, Chalkidiki, just 150 meters from the sea, stands a detached villa with 288 m² of living space on a 2,357 m² private lot.

A special feature of the property is the panoramic view of two different sides of Chalkidiki. Toward the Toroneos Gulf, the view extends to the Sithonia Peninsula and Mount Athos, while to the west it opens up to the Thermaic Gulf and Mount Olympus, offering breathtaking sunsets.

Built in 2006, the residence spans three floors and features four bedrooms, three bathrooms, two living areas, a kitchen and dining room, a basement, spacious storage rooms, and a covered parking space.

The upper floor features three spacious bedrooms. The master bedroom has an en suite bathroom, while the other two share a second large bathroom.

The middle floor comprises the main living area with an open-concept living, dining, and kitchen space. The marble floor, marble fireplace, and granite countertops in the kitchen lend the room a special charm, while the large windows and balconies make the most of the view and natural light.

The lower level includes an additional bedroom, a living room, and a bathroom, offering comfortable accommodations for guests or family members seeking more independence. Also on this level are a cellar, spacious storage rooms, and an enclosed garage.

Property and Outdoor Areas:

The 2,357 m² private property is one of the estate's greatest assets. It includes approximately 500 m² of paved areas and paths, landscaped gardens, a vineyard, 18 olive trees, and 20 fruit trees, which create a particularly beautiful Mediterranean atmosphere around the house.

The spacious balconies on the middle and upper floors offer magnificent panoramic views.

Other data

Facing the Gulf of Toroneos, the balconies span approximately 25 m² per level, while those facing the Thermaikos Gulf are arranged in a semicircle.

In the garden, next to the pergola, there is a covered and fully equipped barbecue area, ideal for outdoor meals and social gatherings. In addition to the enclosed garage, four additional shaded parking spaces are available.

The house features self-sufficient oil heating, air conditioning, and mosquito nets, making it suitable for both summer stays and comfortable year-round living.

This property stands out above all for its combination of a large, private lot, an elevated location, panoramic views of two bays, and its proximity to the sea just 150 meters away.
