Location

Its excellent location, combined with modern design, the highest construction standards, and after-sales service, make Fournado the ideal investment for a vacation home or a permanent residence.

Chania is 43 km away, and the airport is 60 km away.

Property description

With a magnificent view of Kissamos Bay and the surrounding olive groves, Fournado is situated on the hills south of Kastelli, the second-largest urban center in the Chania district.

The project is conveniently located just 1 km from the fishing port of Kastelli and very close to the pristine beaches of Falasarna and Balos.

This new development consists of detached villas with optional private swimming pools.

The properties are designed in the traditional Cretan village style and offer plenty of space and communal amenities.
