Property description

In one of the most beautiful areas of Portohelio and less than 300 meters from the beautiful beach of Ververonda, with a separate, green garden, a detached two-storey house with a total area of 139.18 square meters is available for sale on a fenced plot of 1,537.17 square meters.

It is situated on a gently sloping hillside and has a beautiful opening to the mountain and a partial view of the sea.

The neighborhood consists mainly of luxury residences, some of which are occasionally used for vacation purposes.

The volume of the residence is spread over two levels which, due to the nature of the ground, have access to the landscaped courtyard from each level.

On the first level (101.38 m²) we find the single living room with kitchen, two bedrooms and a bathroom.

The verandas are covered and closed off with glazing, providing additional living space and direct visual contact with the surroundings and environment.

On the second level (37.80 m²) we find a single, independent room that can be used as a bedroom.

It is currently used as a guest house, boiler room and storage room.

Access to the residence is via an asphalted municipal road.

The garden is beautifully landscaped with paving stones, open spaces, olive trees, citrus trees and a wide variety of ornamental plants.

The simplicity, the beautiful garden and the easy access to the beach are elements that give this residence a special character.
